

WORLD READERS ARE HELP-SEEKERS.
IF YOU WANT WORK
A 20-WORD AD.
COSTING 10 CTS.
WILL SECURE IT FOR YOU.
TO-MORROW IT WILL GO IN THE
EVENING WORLD
FREE
Brooklyn Office—309 Washington St.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

MR. SHEEHAN GETS ANGRY.

Tells Investigator Goff He'll
"Take Care He Doesn't Hang Himself."

HIS BROTHER ALSO PRESENT.

The Lieutenant-Governor an Interested Spectator at the Lexow Inquiry.

ZELLA NICOLAUS TO TESTIFY?

Reported Anxious to Tell of a High Police Official's Part in the Gould Scandal.

Yesterday's experience showed that the accommodations for the Lexow Committee were so insufficient in Part III. of the Superior Court that the headquarters of the investigators were removed this morning over into the larger room of Part I., where the earlier sessions of the Committee were held. As usual, the Senators were half an hour late, and Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan, who was to be the star witness for the day, was also behind time, for he did not make his appearance till nearly 11 o'clock. After the preliminary round with Mr. Goff last evening the Commissioner had evidently lost a good deal of his aplomb, and this morning his face seemed to wear a look of apprehensiveness, as if he anticipated another hot skirmish with the Chief Inquisitor as soon as the latter should reopen fire with his big gun.

A story was in circulation this morning to the effect that Mrs. Zella Nicolaus, whose affair with the Gould family and the mysterious check for $40,000, which was stopped by George Gould, was a recent sensation, had something to say and was important to tell the Lexow Committee.

It was intimated that a high police official was implicated in the hush-up of an affair, and that he had received a large pecuniary compensation for his services, and that Zella was willing to tell all she knew about the negotiations which led to the withdrawal of her suit.

It was even said that she had had several interviews with the counsel for the Committee, and that the date for her appearance as a witness had been arranged. "I know nothing about the matter," said Mr. Moss this morning, "and I do not believe that Mrs. Nicolaus has anything important to tell. I certainly do not know of any consultation between her and the counsel for the Lexow Committee."

"I have heard, however, that she was in town and was going around trying to make capital out of her supposed claim upon the Gould family. It is barely possible that she might be able to show that she has anything important to divulge in connection with the Police Department."

"Miss-Evelyn Billy" Comes in with John.

Commissioner Sheehan came in accompanied by his brother, "Blue-Eyed Billy" of Buffalo, the Lieutenant-Governor, who was cordially greeted by his friends, the Senators, and several minutes were spent in handshaking.

The two brothers took a seat in the corner and had an earnest talk, in which Lawyer Louis J. Fran, parlied, Ex-Senator Jimmy Evans, Uncle Lawson N. Fuller and Father Ducey were among the listeners. The former witness testified to the Sheehans.

It was 11:10 o'clock when Mr. Goff came looking for the Commissioner. Commissioner Sheehan to the witness-stand at once, and without any preliminary remarks, he asked the first question: "You wanted to make an explanation yesterday," he said. "What was it, Mr. Commissioner?"

"I simply wanted to say in relation to our Long Island City contracts that we always worked on a cash basis, and got the contracts in spite of the fact that the improvement Commissioner there wanted to give the contracts to others."

In regard to the Eighth Avenue Court-house, the witness declared that he had nothing whatever to do with the contract, and that he was not a party to it. A lawyer need not try to practice law, replied the Commissioner. "I have had references and have done office duties."

He went on to speak at length on the point when Mr. Goff interrupted him and said: "Now, don't argue with me; just answer my questions."

"Well, you are making side speeches and I will not retort the witness," replied the Commissioner. "I have no counsel here, and I'll answer questions till I find I have to protect myself."

Sheehan Won't "Hang Himself."

"Now, don't talk so much," put in Mr. Goff. "Many a man has hanged himself on that witness stand by talking too much."

seen Commissioner White last night, and that the latter had told him to inform the Committee that he had an important engagement this morning, but that if he was wanted a note sent to his office would bring him before the Committee at once.

Senator Lexow thought that this was satisfactory. Mr. Goff then returned to the Eighth Avenue Court-house deal, and wanted to know why Mr. Kelly, the attorney, had some of the Commissioner and tried to get him to use his influence to have something done to keep the Court-house where it was.

The Commissioner Gets Settled.

"I didn't say he wanted to get my influence," replied the witness. "Yes, you did," said Mr. Goff, and he found the testimony in the minutes. "Well, it was a mistake if I said so," said Mr. Sheehan. "Nothing was said by Mr. Kelly about getting my influence."

"I'll get an answer if I stay here all day," said Mr. Goff. "It is as long as you can," retorted Mr. Sheehan.

Mr. Goff finally accepted the answer that the Commissioner was mistaken when he used the word "influence" yesterday in connection with the Court-house deal.

WRITE FOR MRS. HERMANN.

Justice Lippincott Issues One Returnable Next Monday.

Justice Lippincott, in the Supreme Court, Jersey City, to-day granted a writ of habeas corpus for Mrs. Matilda Hermann, the detained Lexow witness, returnable Monday afternoon.

The court's opinion is regarded as important, as it will establish a rule of practice in such cases. The opinion says: "So far as the matter appears upon the petition the only question arising is the legal one, whether the proceedings before the police justice, and the commitment are in substantial compliance with the act of the Legislature. It is only necessary to have a substantial compliance with the statute in order to hold the proceedings effectual for the purposes of the act."

But even if the proceedings before the police justice were defective the court would probably not discharge on habeas corpus until a reasonable opportunity had been given to amend the proceedings according to the true state of the case for an examination in the matter. At the practice under this act should be settled.

"But this order for an examination would be entirely unnecessary if it be found that the proceedings before the police justice—that is, the commitment—are in substantial compliance with the act of the Legislature, and therefore the court desires to hear the testimony of the parties to the case before it should be settled."

Both the State and Lawyer Barwick held that the opinion in favor of the police justice was a very comfortable one in the county jail. She refused to talk to-day, and still adhered to her position as to whether she will testify before the Lexow Committee.

GIVEN A HEARING

Schmittberger and Jerolomon Believed the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury has decided to give Capt. Schmittberger and his ex-wardman Jerolomon a chance to tell their own defense. The members have been inquiring into the case against them, and it is said that they were ready to hand in indictments against them yesterday, but that they were requested by the accused police officers that a hearing be given them.

The Grand Jurors are not required by law to give any accused person a hearing, but as in this case, they are usually so when requested.

Capt. Schmittberger and Jerolomon were therefore permitted to go before the Grand Jury this morning and tell their version of the charges against them.

It is said that other accused police officers and ex-wardmen will also be given a hearing before the Grand Jury this morning.

Capt. Schmittberger was only before the Grand Jury about twenty minutes. He would answer no questions, and at once left the Criminal Court. The witnesses were before the Grand Jury this morning.

CAPTAINS ARE ALL HERE.

The Report that One Was Hiding in Chicago Denied.

The Chicago despatch, published this morning, to the effect that a police captain of this city, accompanied by an ex-member of the force, had been in Chicago for the past ten days in order to avoid appearing before the Lexow Committee, is pronounced untrue by Supt. Byrne.

Inspector Williams, McEvoy and Conlin made an investigation this morning, and found that there was no captain absent from duty.

HE WAS A THIRSTY VANDAL.

McCarthy Broke a Window When Refused a Drink.

The police are looking for John McCarthy, whose address is unknown. He is wanted to answer to a charge of smashing a $75 plate-glass window in James Kelly's saloon, 315 Bond street, Brooklyn.

McCarthy demanded a drink late last night, and upon being refused he threw a soda-water bottle at the window. He then ran out into the street and escaped.

SHUT OUT OF THE DISTRICT.

Washington Authorities Bar the Commercial Alliance Co.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Formal notice was ordered on Wednesday by the Commissioners to be served upon the Commercial Alliance Life Insurance Company, of New York, of the revocation of its license to conduct the insurance business in the District of Columbia.

This action is taken upon the showing of the affairs of the Company by Supt. Pierce, of New York.

WORLD READERS ARE HELP-SEEKERS.
IF YOU WANT WORK
A 20-WORD AD.
COSTING 10 CTS.
WILL SECURE IT FOR YOU.
TO-MORROW IT WILL GO IN THE
EVENING WORLD
FREE
Brooklyn Office—309 Washington St.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

CHINAMEN RAN AWAY CZAR MUCH BETTER.

Story of the Japanese Victory of
Thursday on the Yalu.

Anxiety to Take Moukden Before
the Mikado's Birthday.

Health and Spirits of Japan's Invading Army Excellent.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 26.—Later despatches from the Yalu River show that
in the battle fought yesterday between
the Chinese and Japanese 3,500 Chinese
troops of all arms were utterly routed.

CHEMULPO, Corea, Oct. 25.—Despatches received here from Wiju dated midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and Japanese across the Yalu River.

Gen. Nodzu, the Japanese Chief of Staff, it appears, succeeded in getting
the main body of the Japanese army
across the Yalu River without mishap
before daylight on Thursday. Then Col.
Sato was sent forward at the head of a Chinese column on reconnoitering expedition and he discovered the enemy
occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang on the right bank of
the Yalu.

In spite of the fact that he had no
artillery at his disposal, Col. Sato immediately commenced an attack upon the Chinese and a fierce fight followed. The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly. The attack began at 10 o'clock
in the morning and lasted until noon,
when the Chinese began wavering, broke
and eventually retired in great disorder,
falling back upon Kullenhas.

The troops commanded by Col. Sato,
after the Chinese had retired, set to work upon the demolition of the fortifications of Fushang. Inside the fortifications they found 200 Chinese dead. The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was
a Chinese officer, who stated that the position was held by eighteen battalions
of Chinese troops.

The Japanese, escorting their prisoners,
then marched in the direction of
Gen. Nodzu's main body, with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is not known. The Japanese lost five officers and ninety men killed and wounded.

Later despatches said that the Chinese
outposts were falling back upon Kail-
son, where it is expected that the only really determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal Yamagata's plans are completed in
every detail for inflicting what he hopes
will turn out to be a crushing blow
upon the Chinese. Several columns of Japanese troops are acting in concert
after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at the battle of Ping-yang, and it is expected that they will deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position. If the Japanese Field
Marshal's plans are carried out, it is probable that the network of the invaders will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight on Saturday, thus enabling the Japanese to proceed to the attack at dawn on Sunday.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported
strength of the Chinese position at Ku-lien-shan, and Gen. Nodzu is said not to be quite certain himself, although spies
and prisoners have furnished various reports
on the subject.

It is reported that the Chinese batteries
at Kullenhas have been increased from
three to eleven; but, on the other hand,
rumor has it that it is extremely doubtful
whether all these batteries are fully armed.

All reports join in saying that the esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops is excellent, and it is said
to be the universal ambition of all classes of the service to capture Mouk-
den before the birthday of the Emperor
of Japan, which occurs on Nov. 3.

Reputedly His Confession.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The trial of
White Caps was resumed yesterday at Helena,
Ark. The sensation of the day was the testimony
of Gus Bryant, the leader of the gang, who turned State's evidence last spring and made a confession of his part in the crime. The prosecution attorneys openly charged that the State's witnesses have been tampered with.

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

WORLD READERS ARE HELP-SEEKERS.
IF YOU WANT WORK
A 20-WORD AD.
COSTING 10 CTS.
WILL SECURE IT FOR YOU.
TO-MORROW IT WILL GO IN THE
EVENING WORLD
FREE
Brooklyn Office—309 Washington St.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

CHINAMEN RAN AWAY CZAR MUCH BETTER.

Story of the Japanese Victory of
Thursday on the Yalu.

Anxiety to Take Moukden Before
the Mikado's Birthday.

Health and Spirits of Japan's Invading Army Excellent.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 26.—Later despatches from the Yalu River show that
in the battle fought yesterday between
the Chinese and Japanese 3,500 Chinese
troops of all arms were utterly routed.

CHEMULPO, Corea, Oct. 25.—De-
spatches received here from Wiju dated
midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and Japanese across the Yalu River.

Gen. Nodzu, the Japanese Chief of Staff, it appears, succeeded in getting
the main body of the Japanese army
across the Yalu River without mishap
before daylight on Thursday. Then Col.
Sato was sent forward at the head of a
Chinese column on reconnoitering expedition and he discovered the enemy
occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang on the right bank of
the Yalu.

In spite of the fact that he had no
artillery at his disposal, Col. Sato immediately commenced an attack upon the Chinese and a fierce fight followed. The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly. The attack began at 10 o'clock
in the morning and lasted until noon,
when the Chinese began wavering, broke
and eventually retired in great disorder,
falling back upon Kullenhas.

The troops commanded by Col. Sato,
after the Chinese had retired, set to
work upon the demolition of the fortifications of Fushang. Inside the fortifications they found 200 Chinese
dead. The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was
a Chinese officer, who stated that the
position was held by eighteen battalions
of Chinese troops.

The Japanese, escorting their prisoners,
then marched in the direction of
Gen. Nodzu's main body, with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is
not known. The Japanese lost five
officers and ninety men killed and
wounded.

Later despatches said that the Chinese
outposts were falling back upon Kail-
son, where it is expected that the
only really determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal
Yamagata's plans are completed in
every detail for inflicting what he hopes
will turn out to be a crushing blow
upon the Chinese. Several columns of Japanese troops are acting in concert
after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at the battle of Ping-
yang, and it is expected that they will
deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position. If the Japanese Field
Marshal's plans are carried out, it is probable that the network of the invaders will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight on Satur-
day, thus enabling the Japanese to proceed to the attack at dawn on Sunday.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported
strength of the Chinese position at Ku-
lien-shan, and Gen. Nodzu is said not to
be quite certain himself, although spies
and prisoners have furnished various reports
on the subject.

It is reported that the Chinese batteries
at Kullenhas have been increased from
three to eleven; but, on the other hand,
rumor has it that it is extremely doubtful
whether all these batteries are fully armed.

All reports join in saying that the
esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops is excellent, and it is said
to be the universal ambition of all
classes of the service to capture Mouk-
den before the birthday of the Emperor
of Japan, which occurs on Nov. 3.

Reputedly His Confession.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The trial of
White Caps was resumed yesterday at Helena,
Ark. The sensation of the day was the testimony
of Gus Bryant, the leader of the gang, who turned State's evidence last spring and made a confession of his part in the crime. The prosecution attorneys openly charged that the State's witnesses have been tampered with.

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

WORLD READERS ARE HELP-SEEKERS.
IF YOU WANT WORK
A 20-WORD AD.
COSTING 10 CTS.
WILL SECURE IT FOR YOU.
TO-MORROW IT WILL GO IN THE
EVENING WORLD
FREE
Brooklyn Office—309 Washington St.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

CHINAMEN RAN AWAY CZAR MUCH BETTER.

Story of the Japanese Victory of
Thursday on the Yalu.

Anxiety to Take Moukden Before
the Mikado's Birthday.

Health and Spirits of Japan's Invading Army Excellent.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 26.—Later despatches from the Yalu River show that
in the battle fought yesterday between
the Chinese and Japanese 3,500 Chinese
troops of all arms were utterly routed.

CHEMULPO, Corea, Oct. 25.—De-
spatches received here from Wiju dated
midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and Japanese across the Yalu River.

Gen. Nodzu, the Japanese Chief of Staff, it appears, succeeded in getting
the main body of the Japanese army
across the Yalu River without mishap
before daylight on Thursday. Then Col.
Sato was sent forward at the head of a
Chinese column on reconnoitering expedition and he discovered the enemy
occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang on the right bank of
the Yalu.

In spite of the fact that he had no
artillery at his disposal, Col. Sato immediately commenced an attack upon the Chinese and a fierce fight followed. The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly. The attack began at 10 o'clock
in the morning and lasted until noon,
when the Chinese began wavering, broke
and eventually retired in great disorder,
falling back upon Kullenhas.

The troops commanded by Col. Sato,
after the Chinese had retired, set to
work upon the demolition of the fortifications of Fushang. Inside the fortifications they found 200 Chinese
dead. The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was
a Chinese officer, who stated that the
position was held by eighteen battalions
of Chinese troops.

The Japanese, escorting their prisoners,
then marched in the direction of
Gen. Nodzu's main body, with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is
not known. The Japanese lost five
officers and ninety men killed and
wounded.

Later despatches said that the Chinese
outposts were falling back upon Kail-
son, where it is expected that the
only really determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal
Yamagata's plans are completed in
every detail for inflicting what he hopes
will turn out to be a crushing blow
upon the Chinese. Several columns of Japanese troops are acting in concert
after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at the battle of Ping-
yang, and it is expected that they will
deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position. If the Japanese Field
Marshal's plans are carried out, it is probable that the network of the invaders will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight on Satur-
day, thus enabling the Japanese to proceed to the attack at dawn on Sunday.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported
strength of the Chinese position at Ku-
lien-shan, and Gen. Nodzu is said not to
be quite certain himself, although spies
and prisoners have furnished various reports
on the subject.

It is reported that the Chinese batteries
at Kullenhas have been increased from
three to eleven; but, on the other hand,
rumor has it that it is extremely doubtful
whether all these batteries are fully armed.

All reports join in saying that the
esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops is excellent, and it is said
to be the universal ambition of all
classes of the service to capture Mouk-
den before the birthday of the Emperor
of Japan, which occurs on Nov. 3.

Reputedly His Confession.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The trial of
White Caps was resumed yesterday at Helena,
Ark. The sensation of the day was the testimony
of Gus Bryant, the leader of the gang, who turned State's evidence last spring and made a confession of his part in the crime. The prosecution attorneys openly charged that the State's witnesses have been tampered with.

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

Do you read the Sunday World?
You read the Evening World!

WORLD READERS ARE HELP-SEEKERS.
IF YOU WANT WORK
A 20-WORD AD.
COSTING 10 CTS.
WILL SECURE IT FOR YOU.
TO-MORROW IT WILL GO IN THE
EVENING WORLD
FREE
Brooklyn Office—309 Washington St.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

CHINAMEN RAN AWAY CZAR MUCH BETTER.

Story of the Japanese Victory of
Thursday on the Yalu.

Anxiety to Take Moukden Before
the Mikado's Birthday.

Health and Spirits of Japan's Invading Army Excellent.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 26.—Later despatches from the Yalu River show that
in the battle fought yesterday between
the Chinese and Japanese 3,500 Chinese
troops of all arms were utterly routed.

CHEMULPO, Corea, Oct. 25.—De-
spatches received here from Wiju dated
midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and Japanese across the Yalu River.

Gen. Nodzu, the Japanese Chief of Staff, it appears, succeeded in getting
the main body of the Japanese army
across the Yalu River without mishap
before daylight on Thursday. Then Col.
Sato was sent forward at the head of a
Chinese column on reconnoitering expedition and he discovered the enemy
occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang on the right bank of
the Yalu.

In spite of the fact that he had no
artillery at his disposal, Col. Sato immediately commenced an attack upon the Chinese and a fierce fight followed. The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly. The attack began at 10 o'clock
in the morning and lasted until noon,
when the Chinese began wavering, broke
and eventually retired in great disorder,
falling back upon Kullenhas.

The troops commanded by Col. Sato,
after the Chinese had retired, set to
work upon the demolition of the fortifications of Fushang. Inside the fortifications they found 200 Chinese
dead. The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was
a Chinese officer, who stated that the
position was held by eighteen battalions
of Chinese troops.

The Japanese, escorting their prisoners,
then marched in the direction of
Gen. Nodzu's main body, with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is
not known. The Japanese lost five
officers and ninety men killed and
wounded.

Later despatches said that the Chinese
outposts were falling back upon Kail-
son, where it is expected that the
only really determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal
Yamagata's plans are completed in
every detail for inflicting what he hopes
will turn out to be a crushing blow
upon the Chinese. Several columns of Japanese troops are acting in concert
after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at the battle of Ping-
yang, and it is expected that they will
deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position. If the Japanese Field
Marshal's plans are carried out, it